

MEDIA LAWYERS ASSOCIATION COUNSEL INFORMATION

Tracy Mutwiri Kanana is a dedicated lawyer and certified mediator who brings a strong blend of legal expertise and leadership to her work. She currently serves as the Chair of the Technical Advisory Team, where she provides strategic guidance and oversight on critical legal and policy matters.

Her professional interests span across constitutional law and criminal law, areas in which she continues to deepen her knowledge and contribute to legal discourse. As a mediator, Tracy has demonstrated a strong commitment to conflict resolution, ensuring that disputes are settled amicably and fairly, with an emphasis on maintaining justice and integrity. Beyond her professional practice, Tracy is deeply passionate about social justice and community development. She plays an active role in girl-child empowerment initiatives, championing programs that promote equal opportunities, access to education, and protection of rights for young girls. Her work reflects a vision of a society where fairness, empowerment, and justice are accessible to all.
