

MEDIA LAWYERS ASSOCIATION COUNSEL INFORMATION

George Otiga Ogubi is a dedicated legal professional with a strong background in advocating for key populations and privacy law, holding the position of Secretary at the Media Lawyers Association of Kenya (MLA). Admitted to the Kenya Bar in 2020, he is currently pursuing an LLM in Cybersecurity, Data Protection, and Privacy at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles. With extensive experience as Managing Partner at Otiga, Naisenya & Associates, George has demonstrated expertise in legal representation, research, and advocacy in various human rights issues, including Media rights and alternative dispute resolution.

His focus on privacy law and data protection aligns with his involvement in international legal collaborations, making him a valuable asset in the media law and privacy sectors. He is also an active member of multiple professional associations, including the Data Privacy and Governance Society of Kenya (DPGSK) and the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAP).