

MEDIA LAWYERS ASSOCIATION COUNSEL INFORMATION

Chrispin Bosire is a practicing Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, a Certified Professional Mediator and an Internet Governance Fellow. He holds a Masters' Degree in Human Rights and Democratization in Africa (Distinction, Pretoria), Bachelor of Laws degree (Hons, Moi University, 2018), and Postgraduate Diploma in Law (Kenya School of Law, 2019-2020).

His practice majors on the intersection between technology, digitization and human rights, such as privacy and data protection. He is an Internet Governance Fellow and researches on internet democracy in Africa. His interest lies in aspects of exercising digital rights as a subset of the mainstream human rights regime. He has written on election technology and accountability, media freedom and regulation, digital identity, leveraging on technology in implementation of socioeconomic rights.

He currently practices Strategic Litigation, Commercial and Corporate Law, Property Development and Portfolio Management. He has expertise in Pensions Law, advising Digital Credit Providers, Intellectual Property Law and Conveyancing.

